SPRI Elects Janni as President for 2010-2011 Term

Waltham, MA, February 2010— SPRI's membership has chosen Al Janni as president for the 2010-2011 term. SPRI members elected Janni at the association's 28th Annual Conference and Business Meeting, held January 15-17 at the Hilton Carillon Park in St. Petersburg, FL. SPRI represents sheet membrane and component suppliers to the commercial roofing industry.

Janni is manager of engineering services at Duro-Last® Roofing Inc. producer of a custom-fabricated, thermoplastic single-ply roofing system for flat or low-sloped commercial or industrial building. He has been a member of SPRI for nine years and has served as secretary/treasurer on various SPRI technical committees.

Janni said, "It is truly an honor to serve as president of SPRI. SPRI is doing many important things in the roofing industry and I am glad to be associated with such an outstanding organization."

The membership also elected David Bailie as 2-Year Director and president-elect of SPRI. Bailie is regional sales manager at USG, manufacturer of Securock Roof Boards headquartered in Chicago, IL. He has been a member of SPRI for several years and has served on various SPRI committees, as well as serving as president in 1998.

John Hickman, chair of SPRI's Nominating Committee and immediate past president, also proposed the following slate of officers and directors, which were approved by SPRI's membership for the association's 2010-2011 membership year:

Secretary/Treasurer & 2-Year Director
2-Year Director (Assoc.)

Robert LeClare, W.P. Hickman Company
George Howell, Spartech.
